Open-Ended vs. Close-Ended Questions

Close Ended Questions
- A close-ended question is one that can be answered directly with information from the text.
  - Example: “What was Jay Gatsby’s birth name?”

Open-Ended Questions
- An open-ended question requires the reader to make an inference based on information that is provided in the text.
  - Example: Did Daisy love Gatsby?